November 6, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Federal Home Loan Bank of New York Announces Appointment of President and Chief Executive Officer

The Federal Home Loan Bank ("FHLBank") of New York announced today that its board of directors has appointed Adam S. Goldstein as President and Chief Executive Officer, effective November 9, 2026.

Mr. Goldstein, age 52, has been with the FHLBank of New York since 1997 and has served as Senior Vice President and Chief Business Officer since 2015. As Senior Vice President and Chief Business Officer, he has led major business activities at the FHLBank of New York such as its advances and letter of credit programs, the creation of its Mortgage Asset Program®, and the development of affordable housing and community development products and programs. Mr. Goldstein previously held leadership roles in the FHLBank of New York's marketing, sales, and business development functions. Mr. Goldstein received his bachelor's degree from the State University of New York at Oneonta and holds an MBA in Financial Marketing from Binghamton University.

For additional information, see the FHLBank of New York's Form 8-K filing on the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission website, www.sec.gov.

Created by Congress in 1932, the FHLBanks have served as a vital source of liquidity to their members throughout the economic cycles, supporting housing finance and community development across the United States. Please contact Tom Heinle at (703) 467-3646 or theinle@fhlb-of.com for additional information.